

Dialogue Workout # 23

1.
A: How long will your uncle visit San Francisco?
B: Only for a couple of days.
A: Where is he going to stay?
B: He is going to stay at our apartment.
A: When will his plane arrive at the airport?
B: It will arrive here at 7:00 PM.

2.
A: Where is he going after San Francisco?
B: He is going to take a trip to New York.
A: What does he plan to do there?
B: He plans to visit friends and relatives there.
A: Where is he going to stay?
B: He is going to stay with his nephew.

3.
A: Hello, Uncle Jack. Did you enjoy your plane trip?
B: Yes, I enjoyed it very much.
A: Did you have dinner on the plane?
B: Yes, I did. But it tasted terrible.
A: Did you check some suitcases?
B: Yes, I did. I need to pick them up.

4.
A: This is the baggage claim area.
B: My suitcases aren't here yet.
A: We have to wait. They're unloading them.
B: I think I see one of my suitcases.
A: There are lot of suitcases. Which one is yours?
B: That large brown one. Can you grab it for me?

5.
A: Would you like to go sight-seeing?
B: Do you think there is enough time?
A: You will be able to see some sights.
B: I know San Francisco is a very interesting city.
A: That's Golden Gate Bridge, over there.
B: It's beautiful! Just like the postcard.

6.
A: I want to take a picture of it.
B: I'll take a picture of you in front of it.
A: O.K. where should I stand?
B: Stand over there. That's right. Smile.
A: It's difficult to smile when I feel so cold.
B: Here's your jacket. Please, put it on.

7.
A: Where are we now?
B: This is Civic Center. There's City Hall.
A: What's that new building?
B: That's the new Opera House. That's the library.
A: I'm hungry. Is there a restaurant nearby?
B: Yes, a lot of new restaurants just opened.

8.
A: Good bye, Uncle Jack.
B: Good bye. I enjoyed San Francisco very much.
A: I hope you will come back next year.
B: I want to spend more time here.
A: You must hurry or you will miss your plane.
B: Yes. Oh, I almost forgot my suitcase. Thank you.

9.
A: How was your uncle's visit?
B: It was great. We had a good time.
A: Did he enjoy San Francisco?
B: Yes, he did. He enjoyed it a lot.
A: What did you and your uncle do?
B: We went sight-seeing.

10.
A: It's your uncle calling from Mexico.
B: Yes? Hello, Uncle Jack? Really? Sure, sure.
A: What does Uncle Jack want?
B: He forgot the souvenirs he bought.
A: So? Now what are you going to do?
B: I'm going to put them in a box and send them.

Dialogue Workout # 24

1.
A: Can you help me move to my new apartment?
B: Yes. What time should I come over?
A: Come over this Saturday about 11 o'clock.
B: Where are you going to move?
A: To Valencia Street, between 23rd and 24th.
B: That's not very far. It should be easy.

2.
A: How much furniture do you have?
B: I have a couch, several chairs, and a table.
A: What else do you have?
B: I have a coffee table and bookcases.
A: Do you have a lot of kitchen ware?
B: Yes, I have a few boxes of dishes and pans.

3.
A: Olga is going to move this Saturday.
B: Does she need any help?
A: Yes, she does. I'm going there at 11:00.
B: I'm happy to help her too.
A: Do you have time this Saturday?
B: Yes, I do. If more people help, it'll be faster.

4.
A: Pacific Bell? Please disconnect my phone.
B: Are you moving to a new apartment?
A: Yes, I am. I'll be out before noon on Saturday.
B: We'll disconnect your phone right away.
A: Please, install a phone in my new apartment.
B: Do you want the same phone number?

5.
A: Yes. I want the same phone number.
B: Could you give me that number again?
A: Yes. It's 824-7234.
B: And your name is Olga Patterson?
A: That's correct.
B: We'll send someone over there tomorrow morning.

6.
A: Everything is in boxes except the furniture.
B: We should carry the boxes first.
A: I'm glad you have a van.
B: Yes, It's very large. It can carry a lot of boxes.
A: These boxes are heavy. What's in them?
B: Books. There are three boxes of books.

7.
A: I hope I didn't forget anything.
B: Did you notify the phone company?
A: Yes, I did. They disconnected my phone.
B: Did you tell P.G. and E. to shut off your gas?
A: Oh, no. I didn't remember to do that.
B: You should tell them now. It's very important.

8.
A: What floor is your new apartment on?
B: It's on the third floor.
A: Is there an elevator in the building?
B: Unfortunately, there isn't an elevator.
A: That's okay. Some people will help us.
B: I'm glad you called Steve. He's very strong.

9.
A: We need another friend to help us.
B: Why don't you call your friend Bob?
A: I already asked him. He's very busy today.
B: We should start now.
A: Yes, we should. It will take us a few hours.
B: There are a lot of boxes.

10.
A: It didn't take us very long to move.
B: No, we moved everything very fast.
A: Steve has a lot of experience.
B: Yes, he does. He carried many heavy things.
A: Your new apartment needs a coat of paint.
B: It sure does. Do you want to help me paint it?

Dialogue Workout # 25

1.
A: When are you going to the dentist?
B: I have an appointment tomorrow.
A: Do you have a toothache?
B: No, I don't. I'm only having my check up.
A: How often do you go for a check up?
B: I go to the dentist every six months.
2.
A: Where are you going today?
B: I'm going to the barber shop.
A: Are you going to get a hair cut?
B: That's right. I really need one.
A: Do you have to wait a long time?
B: No, I usually get my haircut right away.
3.
A: What are you doing tomorrow?
B: I have to take my car to the repair shop.
A: Why? Do you have a problem with it?
B: No. It only needs to have a tune up.
A: How often do you get a tune up?
B: I get a tune up every year.
4.
A: What is Steve doing tomorrow?
B: He has a problem with his computer.
A: Where is he going to take it?
B: He's taking it to the computer repair shop.
A: I hope it isn't a serious problem.
B: It might be. He has an old computer.
5.
A: Is Maria going to repair her bicycle?
B: She can't repair it herself.
A: Where is she taking it?
B: She's taking it to the bicycle shop.
A: That's a good idea.
B: It's a good idea because they're professionals.

- 6..
A: My camera is broken and I can't fix it.
B: You should take it to a camera shop.
A: That's a good idea.
B: You shouldn't try to fix it yourself.
A: I don't know how to fix cameras.
B: At the camera shop, they're professionals.
7.
A: I'm going to the beauty shop today.
B: Why? Are you getting a haircut?
A: No, I'm not. I'm going to get a permanent.
B: Oh, I need a permanent too. Are they expensive?
A: Well, I paid twenty-five dollars the last time.
B: Twenty-five dollars? That's a little expensive.
8.
A: Where are you taking Rover?
B: I'm taking him to the vet. He needs shots.
A: That's a good idea. He'll be a healthy dog.
B: I have a very good vet. He loves animals.
A: You have a nice dog, too. Hello, Rover.
B: I'm sorry Rover licked you. He's a very friendly dog
9.
A: Are you having a problem with your sink?
B: Yes, I am. It's always clogged.
A: You should try Liquid Plumber.
B: I already tried it. It didn't work.
A: Then, I guess you have to call a plumber.
B: I'll call one this afternoon.
10.
A: Where are you going this afternoon?
B: I'm going to the nail salon.
A: What are they doing to your nails?
B: First, they're going to clean my nails very well.
A: What will they do next?
B: Next, they'll cut my nails and polish them.

Dialogue Workout # 26

1.
A: I would like to invite you for dinner.
B: Oh, thank you. I would love to come over.
A: Can you come over this Saturday?
B: This Saturday? Let me see. Yes, that'll be fine.
A: A few other people are coming also.
B: So, you're going to have a dinner party.

2.
A: That's right. It's a little celebration.
B: What are you celebrating?
A: My niece is graduating from High School.
B: That's great. Should I bring anything?
A: Can you bring a salad?
B: Sure. I'll be glad to bring a salad.

3.
A: Jose and Maria are having a dinner party.
B: I know they are. They invited us too.
A: What are you bringing to their party?
B: We're bringing dessert.
A: Mm, good. What kind of dessert?
B: We're bringing a chocolate cake.

4.
A: The dinner party is going to start soon.
B: Is everything ready?
A: Yes, the main course is ready.
B: Well, then, why are you nervous?
A: We don't have enough silverware and plates.
B: We can borrow them from the neighbors.

5.
A: Excuse me. I'm sorry to bother you.
B: That's okay. What do you need?
A: We don't have enough silverware and plates.
B: How many people are coming over?
A: About fourteen people.
B: Don't worry. We'll lend you our silverware.

6.
A: Our neighbors lent us silverware.
B: That was very nice. But we still need plates.
A: Why don't we use paper plates?
B: I don't want to serve food on paper plates.
A: I forgot. There are a lot of plates in the basement.
B: Bring them up quickly and we'll wash them.

7.
A: Now, it's time to set the table.
B: I'll put the place mats on the table.
A: Don't forget to put a napkin at each place.
B: Also, I'll put a glass and silverware for everyone.
A: We have to take good care of the silverware.
B: Yes, we do. It belongs to our neighbors.

8.
A: Welcome to our house. Did you find it all right?
B: Yes, we did. Your directions were very clear.
A: Please, come in and sit down.
B: Thank you. You have a very nice house.
A: Let me take your jackets. I'll hang them up.
B: Nobody else is here. We must be early.

9.
A: Actually, you're right on time.
B: So, everybody else is a little late.
A: I'm glad they're late. We're still setting the table.
B: Here is the salad.
A: Thank you for bringing it. It looks delicious.
B: Hilda and Ernesto are bringing a chocolate cake.

10.
A: We had a successful dinner party.
B: I'm glad everybody had enough to eat.
A: I have to return the neighbor's silverware.
B: And I have to put the extra dishes away in the basement.
A: Don't put them away yet. I'll wash them first.
B: I enjoyed the party. It was a nice celebration.
