

Dialogue Workout # 27

1.

A: What is the warmest season?

B: Summer is the warmest season.

A: What is the coldest season?

B: Winter is the coldest season.

A: What's your favorite season?

B: I like autumn the best.

2.

A: Do you like autumn the best?

B: Yes, I do. I like the different color leaves.

A: I thought that was fall.

B: Autumn is another word for fall.

A: Oh, I see. I like spring the best.

B: Why do you like spring?

3.

A: I like to listen to the birds.

B: Also, the flowers bloom in the spring.

A: Yes, and the grass is very green.

B: Spring is a good time for cleaning.

A: That's right. Also, I put away my winter clothes.

B: The weather is warmer in the spring.

4.

A: Did you hear the weather report?

B: Yes. I heard it on television.

A: What is the weather report for tomorrow?

B: It will be sunny tomorrow.

A: Do you think the report is correct?

B: I hope so. I plan to go to the beach.

5.

A: Do you think it will rain tomorrow?

B: I hope not. I like to be outdoors.

A: What are you planning to do?

B: I want to go fishing tomorrow.

A: The weather report says it might rain.

B: If it rains, I'll stay home.

6.

A: Does it ever snow in San Francisco?

B: No, it never snows in the Bay Area.

A: Does it snow anywhere in California?

B: Yes, it snows in the high Sierra.

A: Good. I want to go skiing.

B: There are many places to ski in the mountains.

7.

A: What's the weather like now?

B: It's very windy outside.

A: Is it often windy in San Francisco?

B: Yes, it is. We live near the ocean.

A: Is it cold outside too?

B: Yes, it is. You should wear your jacket.

8.

A: Oh, look. It's raining very hard.

B: It's raining? Oh, no. I didn't bring an umbrella.

A: The weather report says it's going to rain a lot.

B: Is it going to rain tomorrow too?

A: Yes, it is. Don't forget your umbrella tomorrow.

B: I won't. I don't want to catch a cold.

9.

A: What's the weather like now?

B: It's very overcast.

A: Do you think it will clear up tomorrow?

B: Yes. I heard on TV it's going to be sunny.

A: Oh, good. I'm tired of gray sky!

B: You will need your hat tomorrow.

10.

A: It's very hot outside. I'm sweating.

B: When is it going to be cool?

A: I heard on TV it's going to be hot for a week.

B: I will wear a T-shirt every day.

A: This is good weather for swimming.

B: Yes, and I would like an air conditioner.

Dialogue Workout # 28

1.
A: This is a nice photograph. Who is she?
B: That's my sister. Her name is Laura.
A: And who is the tall man?
B: That's my brother in law, Robert.
A: What are they doing in this photograph?
B: They're standing in front of a lake in the park.

2.
A: I like this photograph. Who are these people?
B: Those people are my parents.
A: I can't believe it. They look so young.
B: They exercise often. They like to walk.
A: Where are they in this photograph?
B: They're sitting on a sofa in their apartment.

3.
A: Here is a picture of my two children.
B: They look very happy. What are they doing?
A: They're laughing at me. I'm making faces.
B: How old are your children?
A: Sofie is eight years old, and Stevie is six.
B: Are they in school?

4.
A: Sofie is in Third Grade. Stevie is in First Grade.
B: Are they both in elementary school?
A: That's right. They both like their teachers.
B: What elementary school are they in?
A: They're in Edison Elementary School.
B: This is a very nice picture of them.

5.
A: This is very nice picture. Who are they?
B: They are my niece and my nephew.
A: What are they doing in the picture?
B: They're playing cards.
A: Do they play cards very often?
B: No, they don't. They're playing cards because it's raining outside.

6.
A: This is a picture of my son's family.
B: Tell me who is in the picture.
A: The lady on the left is my daughter-in-law.
B: Is the man on the right your son?
A: And those are my two grandchildren.
B: Your grandchildren look very happy

7.
A: This is a picture of my aunt, uncle, and cousin.
B: Where are they?
A: They are at their daughter's graduation.
B: Is that their daughter?
A: Yes, my cousin. She graduated from college.
B: She's carrying her diploma. She looks happy.

8.
A: These are my wedding pictures.
B: Is that your bride?
A: Yes, it is. And that's me. We're dancing.
B: What are you doing in this picture?
A: We're cutting the cake.
B: Do you have any more wedding pictures?

9.
A: I have a few pictures of my English class.
B: I recognize that person. It's me.
A: That's right. You were in my class last year.
B: I recognize that person. It's Jessica.
A: That's right. Jessica was in our English class too.
B: And that's you. You're smiling and your arm is around the teacher.

10.
A: Where do you keep your photographs?
B: I keep some of them in a box.
A: Where do you keep your family photos?
B: I keep them in a photo album.
A: I would like to see your photo album.
B: Most of the pictures are my daughter's baby pictures

1.

A: I have a brother in New York.

B: Do you have any pictures of him?

A: No, I don't. He sometimes writes to me.

B: Do you have any sisters?

A: Yes, I do. I have a sister in Los Angeles.

B: Is she married?

2.

A: Yes, she is. She has two children.

B: What does her husband do?

A: He manages a clothing store.

B: Does your sister sometimes help him?

A: Sometimes. But she usually stays home.

B: She has to take care of her children.

3.

A: She also has to take care of the house.

B: Does her husband sometimes help her?

A: Yes, he does. He helps her when he comes home.

B: What does he do around the house?

A: He washes the dishes after dinner.

B: How about you? Are you married?

4.

A: I'm not married, but I have a girlfriend.

B: Where are you going now?

A: I'm going to meet her. We're going shopping.

B: Are you going to the new shopping center?

A: Yes, we are. We're going to have lunch there.

B: Well, thank you for telling me about your family.

5.

A: How about your grandparents?

B: They're both retired. They live in Miami.

A: Do you have a picture of your grandparents?

B: Yes, here is a picture of them.

A: Where are they in the picture? Is that Miami?

B: Yes. They're standing in front of their house.

6.

A: This is my son and my daughter.

B: Do they like to ride bikes?

A: Yes, they do. They always ride their bikes.

B: Do they sometimes take the bus?

A: My son sometimes takes the bus to school.

B: They look like they enjoy riding their bikes.

7.

A: Does your husband help you at home?

B: Yes, he does. He usually cleans the kitchen.

A: Does he do the laundry?

B: We both do the laundry. He fixes things.

A: Is he good with his hands?

B: Yes, he is. Yesterday, he repaired our clock.

8.

A: I have relatives in Canada.

B: That's far away. Do you write them?

A: Yes, and in the summer, I visit them.

B: It must be nice. Do you call them?

A: I call them after 11:00. The rates are lower.

B: That's right. It's a long distance phone call.

9.

A: Natalie is going to the post office.

B: Why is she going there?

A: She's sending a present to her niece and nephew.

B: Where do they live?

A: They live in Canada. She's sending each of them a CD.

B: How do I find a phone number in another city?

10.

A: First, you must know the area code of the city.

B: I know the area code. It's 562.

A: Then, you dial 1 plus 562 plus 555-1212.

B: That will give me information for that city?

A: Yes, it will. It's long distance information.

B: Great. I'll get the number and call my cousin.

Dialogue Workout # 30

1.

A: Do you like sports?

B: Yes, of course I do. I love sports.

A: What kind of sport do you play?

B: I play soccer and tennis.

A: What's your favorite sport?

B: I like soccer the best.

2.

A: How often do you play soccer?

B: I play soccer once a week.

A: Where do you usually play it?

B: I usually play soccer in Golden Gate Park.

A: Do you play tennis very often?

B: I sometimes play tennis, about once a month.

3.

A: What sports do you like to watch on TV?

B: I like to watch different sports on TV.

A: Do you like to watch golf?

B: Yes, I do. Golf is exciting, and so is baseball.

A: I sometimes watch football on TV. Do you?

B: Sometimes, but I prefer to watch basketball.

4.

A: Julio is a professional soccer player.

B: What team does he play with?

A: He plays with the Mexican Team.

B: My son wants to be a professional soccer player, too.

A: Is he good? Do you think he can do it?

B: Yes, I do. He's an excellent soccer player.

5.

A: My husband watches sports on TV.

B: When does he watch sports?

A: He watches sports on Saturday and Sunday.

B: What sports does he like to watch?

A: That's the trouble. He likes all the sports.

B: When does he clean the apartment?

6.

A: I'm not an athlete, but I like to exercise.

B: What kind of exercise do you like to do?

A: I like to go jogging and I like to go swimming.

B: I like to go jogging, too.

A: Where do you usually go jogging?

B: I usually go jogging in Golden Gate Park.

7.

A: Does Maria want to go swimming today?

B: She doesn't have time to go swimming today.

A: Maybe we can go swimming another time.

B: Maria has free time tomorrow. Is that good?

A: Would you ask her if she can go tomorrow?

B: She said tomorrow is fine.

8.

A: Paul doesn't have time to go fishing today.

B: Would you ask him if he can go tomorrow?

A: He said tomorrow is fine. We all can go.

B: What time should I pick you and Paul up?

A: How about 9:00 AM? Or is that too early?

B: No. 9:00 AM is fine. I'll see you and Paul then.

9.

A: Did you go bowling yesterday?

B: Yes, I did. I had a great time. I bowled well.

A: I bowl badly. Maybe you can teach me.

B: Sure, I'll be glad to. Bowling isn't very difficult.

A: I almost never get a strike or a spare.

B: There are some tricks I can show you.

10.

A: I didn't go dancing last night.

B: I know you didn't. I didn't see you.

A: I didn't want to go. I'm a terrible dancer.

B: You shouldn't say that. You don't dance badly.

A: I'm afraid I will step on Sylvia's feet.

B: I'll be glad to give you some pointers.