

1.

A: Jose and Patricia are going to get married.

B: That's great news. When is the wedding?

A: They are going to attend college first.

B: So, the wedding will be in about four years.

A: Jose will take computer classes at U.C. Berkeley.

B: And what will Patricia study?

A: She'll study psychology at U.C. Berkeley, also.

2.

A: Patty, will you marry me?

B: Yes, I will, Jose. But I won't marry you until we finish college.

A: But, Patty, that means we'll wait four years.

B: Don't worry. I love you. I won't marry anybody else.

A: Will you still love me after four years?

B: Yes, I will. I know I will. I won't change my mind.

3.

A: I'm going to think about Patty for four years. I won't think about computers.

B: You'll study computers very hard. Then, you'll get a good job after college.

A: I'm afraid I'll fail my computer courses.

B: You won't fail. You're going to succeed.

A: I hope I'll concentrate. I hope I'll be a good student.

B: You'll be an excellent student.

4.

A: Jose and Patricia graduated. They're going to get married next month.

B: That's great news. Where is the ceremony going to be?

A: It's going to be in Saint Matthew's Church.

B: I don't know where that is. Will you give me directions?

A: Certainly. Are you going to drive or take the bus?

B: I'll probably drive to the wedding.

5.

A: Yes, I think I'll drive there too.

B: Will there be a reception after the wedding?

A: Of course. The reception will be at Patty's parents' house, in their back yard.

B: How many people will be at the reception?

A: They invited all their friends. About a hundred people will be there.

B: I'm going to give them a nice wedding present.

6.

A: What are you going to give them, do you know?

B: I probably won't give them silverware.

A: Mr. and Mrs. Parker are going to give them silverware.

B: I know, I'll go to Macy's and try to get ideas.

A: I'll probably give them a set of sheets and blankets.

B: Good idea. I'm sure they'll need those things.

7.

A: I read the weather report. It's going to rain tomorrow.

B: Is it going to rain all day?

A: The paper says it's going to rain for two or three days.

B: We're going to have a problem.

A: How will we have a reception in the back yard?

B: We'll have to hold the reception in the house.

8.

A: I don't think so. That won't work. There will be too many people.

B: What are we going to do?

A: I know. If it rains, we'll have the reception in the church basement.

B: Good idea. The church basement is large. It will accommodate a lot of people.

A: If it doesn't rain, we'll use the back yard of your house.

B: Either way, it'll be a beautiful wedding and reception.

9.

A: Patty, what will you wear for the wedding?

B: I'm going to wear my grandmother's wedding dress.

A: Wonderful. What's Jose going to wear?

B: He'll wear a rented tuxedo.

A: Where will you go after the wedding?

B: After the wedding, we're going to travel in Colorado.

10.

A: Jose, you must be happy. You're finally going to marry Patricia.

B: Yes, but the future is uncertain.

A: Where are you going to live?

B: We're not sure. We'll probably live with my folks for a while. I'm going to apply for a job in New York.

A: Will you move to New York if you get that job?

B: I'm not sure. If we move to New York, I'll give you our new address.

11.

A: I have to do a lot of things tomorrow.

B: What are you going to do?

A: I'm going to buy flowers for the wedding.

B: What about the food?

A: That's another thing. I'm going to hire caterers.

B: Will there be music at the reception?

A: Of course. I'm going to ask Tom to play his guitar.

12.

A: Tom has other plans. He's not going to come to the wedding. He's busy this weekend.

B: What is he going to do this weekend?

A: He's going to paint his living room and his kitchen.

B: He's certainly going to be busy.

A: I'll have to find someone else to play music at the reception.

B: That won't be easy.

13.

A: What are you going to give your fiancée for her birthday?

B: I don't know. I can't give her a necklace. I gave her a necklace last year.

A: How about a bracelet?

B: No. I can't give her a bracelet. I gave her a bracelet two years ago.

A: Well, what are you going to give her?

B: I don't know. I'll really have to think about it.

14.

A: Are you going to cook spaghetti for the wedding?

B: No, I'm not. I cooked spaghetti at the last wedding. It wasn't very good.

A: Are you going to serve champagne?

B: Yes, I'm sure we'll serve a lot of champagne.

A: What are you going to make for dessert?

B: I'm not sure yet, but I think we'll make a chocolate cake.

15.

A: Sylvia Reynolds will be our photographer.

B: Does she have a lot of experience with wedding photography?

A: Yes, she does. I'm sure she'll take beautiful photographs.

B: About how many pictures is she going to take?

A: She'll probably take about a hundred photos.

B: Then, you're going to have a very nice scrapbook.

16.

A: Who will be the minister for the ceremony?

B: Our minister will be the Reverend Billy Boyd.

A: Is he going to speak for a long time?

B: His sermon is going to be around ten minutes.

A: That's good. A ten minute sermon won't put me to sleep.

B: I read the sermon. It'll be very nice. I think Jose and Patty will like it.

17.

A: Jose, where are you going after you travel in Colorado?

B: After that trip, we'll return to San Francisco.

A: Will you try to get a job in the Bay Area?

B: I'm going to apply for several positions in Silicon Valley.

A: Are you going to work in computers?

B: Yes, I'll probably get a job as a computer programmer.

18.

A: You aren't going to apply for the job in New York?

B: No, I'm not. I really don't want to live there.

A: So, you won't move to New York next year?

B: No, we're going to stay in California if I can get a good job here.

A: You'll probably get a good job in the Bay Area.

B: Yes, I think IBM will hire me. I'm going to get in touch with them tomorrow.

19.

A: Will the soup be ready soon?

B: Yes, it will. It'll be ready in a few minutes.

A: The ceremony is over. The guests will be here any minute.

B: While it's cooking, I'll make the sandwiches.

A: We'll have to hurry. The guests are going to be hungry.

B: I'm going to have a headache if you keep nagging me.

20.

A: The weather is very nice today. We can have the reception in our back yard.

B: But, it's going to snow in Colorado.

A: Oh, dear. Jose and Patty will be there.

B: It's going to be the worst snow storm in ten years.

A: Jose and Patty will have to stay in their hotel.

B: They'll have to pack extra jackets and scarves.
