

Third Form Participles from f to l. Some will be used twice.

1. I don't care for _____ food. I prefer fresh food.
2. The clothes are all _____ in the closet.
3. A hundred years ago, murderers were _____ .
4. This coffee has been freshly _____ . It's delicious.
5. Has the teacher _____ the test yet? Yes, he gave it yesterday.
6. I haven't _____ to the movies for about two months.
7. Their children have all _____ up. They're in their twenties.
8. Has your daughter _____ married yet? Yes, and she has three children.
9. His knees got sore because he had _____ for a long time.
10. This is a pretty _____ cap. Is it very expensive?
11. I have _____ Mr. Dawson for a long time. He's a good friend of mine.
12. Have you _____ dinner yet? No, it's all cooked, but several dinner guests haven't arrived here yet.
13. I haven't _____ from Tom in a long time, have you? Yes, I have. He's been very busy in his new job.
14. The money is _____ in a safe place. Nobody will find it.
15. His parked car was _____ by another car. Unfortunately, no one saw the accident.
16. The meeting will be _____ next Tuesday at noon.
17. Fortunately, nobody was _____ in the accident.
18. They have _____ on studying since they moved to the U.S.
19. The books were _____ on the table. I don't know where they are now.
20. The orchestra is being _____ by an excellent conductor.
21. Raymond hasn't _____ a raise in a long time, and he's due for one.
22. The chocolate chip cookies are all _____ ! Who has eaten them?
23. My knees feel much better now. They haven't _____ for a long time.
24. The factory workers were _____ off when the company moved to Seattle
25. It is a well _____ fact that fruits and vegetables are good for your health.

frozen	grown	had	held	knit
given	gotten	heard	hurt	known
gone	hung	hidden	kept	laid
ground	hanged	hit	knelt	led