

Third Form Participles from L to R. Some will be used twice.

1. I haven't _____ the new best seller yet, but I plan to.
2. I've _____ several interesting people recently.
3. He hasn't _____ his bicycle in a long time.
4. He hasn't _____ his old job yet. The new one isn't certain.
5. By the time the child reached the bank, the frog had already _____ into the pond.
6. Has the plane _____ yet? Not yet, but you'd better hurry.
7. I had just _____ down for a nap when the phone rang.
8. These books have already been _____ to another student.
9. Their restaurant has _____ quite a lot of money.
10. The policemen were _____ to by the suspects.
11. These stairs are dimly _____. We need brighter lights.
12. The bell has _____ several times. Didn't you hear it?
13. He hadn't _____ to hurt anyone when he played football yesterday, but a boy got a sprained wrist when he tackled him.
14. Have the tools been _____ away yet? Not yet, but I'll do it right away.
15. He has _____ several of the pencils that I lent him.
16. I'm not Ed Murray. I'm afraid you're _____ .
17. He hasn't _____ his problem yet, but he's working on it.
18. It's still dark out. The sun hasn't _____ yet.
19. Our credit cards haven't been _____ off yet.
20. We have _____ several new students join the class.
21. I didn't need to read that book again because I had already _____ it.
22. These earphones are _____ for listening to tapes.
23. I need to see the dentist, but I haven't _____ an appointment yet.
24. The _____ child was finally found and returned to his parents.
25. By the time Robert got to the party, all of the guests had already _____ .

leapt	lain	made	overcome	read
left	lied	meant	paid	ridden
lent	lit	met	put	rung
let	lost	mistaken	quit	risen