

The sound of /ɑɪ/. Number 9 on your Vowel Chart.

1. We need your signature. Please _____ your name on this line.
2. He's going to _____ for that salesman job. His interview will be this Friday.
3. If your _____ leak, you should call a plumber.
4. My child doesn't go to public school. He goes to _____ school.
5. I would like a cup of tea and a piece of _____, please.
6. These shoes fit very well, and I like the _____ very much.
7. _____ are you going to L.A.? I'm going there because I want to visit my cousin.
8. She goes to Mission _____ School. She's in the 10th grade.
9. It was eight o'clock an hour ago. Now, it's _____ o'clock.
10. Do you need stamps? What _____ of stamps do you want to _____?
11. When I go to the bank, I usually have to wait in a long _____.
12. I have change. Do you want a quarter or two _____ and a nickel?
13. Could you tell me the _____? I'm sorry, I don't have a watch.
14. Does your baby _____ when she is tired? No, only when she's hungry.
15. He wants to learn English. He goes to City College every _____.
16. There are a lot of tourists here. They're going _____ seeing.
17. These shoes are too _____. Do you have a larger size?
18. Jack doesn't know how to _____ a car. He wants to learn.
19. If you want a cold drink, you need some _____.
20. Are you going to _____ to New York or take the bus?
21. David _____ go to Canada for vacation or he _____ go to Hawaii. He can't decide.
22. I _____ on the jacket, but it didn't fit. So, I took it back to the store.
23. How do you get downtown? I _____ BART and get off at Powell Street Station.
24. Stand on this scale while I measure your weight and your _____.
25. After I buy a book, I write my name and phone number in it. That way, I can prove it's _____.

style	night	pipes	line	mine
sight	why	high	pie	dimes
buy	height	tight	private	time
nine	fly	sign	cry	apply
ice	tried	drive	might	ride kind				