

Podcast Fourteen

1. I would like to be a software engineer.
2. The software engineer in this video works for a large company in Oakland.
3. Mr. Amos doesn't have much experience.
4. He only needs to use one computer language for his job.
5. He suggests students can take computer classes to prepare for a job like his.
6. He thinks everybody would like to do this job.
7. Mr. Amos doesn't need to check his email often at work.
8. His job is interesting because he likes to solve puzzles.
9. His job is frustrating when he can't solve problems.
10. His job is always easy to do.
11. He can always go home from work on time.
12. He thinks students should try to find a job they would like to do.