

Web Quest;

After introducing the Mission Hiring Hall with group dictation and skimming exercises, bring your class to the MHH online. (If your schedule permits a visit in person, that's also great of course.)

1. Survey class to see who needs help with Internet basics. As needed partner students.
2. Have students work in teams.
3. Team dictation of questions.
4. Have teams think of two other questions each that they feel curious about.
5. Take your class to a room with Internet or bring the Internet to your room with a laptop.
6. Have ss search for answers to your Webquest. You might like to give prizes to the fastest, the most correct answers, etc.

Follow-up: Ask students to write you a short paragraph to process all this information into a short form:

Would you go to the Mission Hiring Hall at some time? What would you like to do there?

Or

Who would you recommend the Mission Hiring Hall to? What do you think this person would learn from the Mission Hiring Hall.

Write your names here:

1. Open Internet Explorer or Safari with your class team. You can work together on your own computers, or you can work around one computer.
2. Go to this web site: <http://www.missionhiringhall.org/>
3. There are two addresses for the job center. Write down both addresses:

--	--

4. Write down both phone numbers.

--	--

5. Write the email address for both:
6. Click on the Job Seeker link. What languages are orientations given in at the Mission Hiring Hall?
